ABOUT HALIFAX

One of North America's most beautiful and historic cities, Halifax offers numerous attractions and events. Rich in Maritime history, the city offers historic sites such as the Halifax Citadel National Historic Site, Pier 21 Halifax - Canada's Immigration Museum, the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic, and Historic Properties, a collection of restored 19th century buildings featuring eclectic boutiques and unique local dining options. Natural beauty awaits at Point Pleasant Park where you can meet the sea, stroll the forest trails and enjoy the historic landscape and romantic ruins, and June is a perfect time to enjoy the Victorian character of the Halifax Public Gardens, a 16-acre oasis in the heart of downtown officially opened in 1867 and designated a National Historic Site of Canada in 1984. Step out for a walk along the waterfront on one of the world's longest downtown boardwalks. There are opportunities to enjoy whale watching, sea kayaking or a sightseeing journey to the picturesque South Shore and famous Peggy's Cove. The city welcomes both national and international performances to the Neptune Theatre, home of Canada's first year-round theatre troupe, and the beautiful Nova Scotia Art Gallery displays local and international art exhibits. Step out for a shopping experience on Spring Garden Road or at the longest continuously running Market in North America, the Halifax Seaport Farmers' Market. Between its internationally praised fine-dining restaurants and trendy cafes, the city's many restaurants offer everything from original seafood fare to unique vegetarian dining. Friendly and upbeat pubs are alive with live music almost every night of the week.

Halifax enjoys the benefits of both an urban centre and the countryside, a delightful blend of old and new, and a wealth of historic, natural and cultural attractions – a stunningly beautiful setting, the irresistible charm of the historic capital, as well as the pleasures of city life – lively streets, shopping, fine restaurants, art galleries and street entertainers. Discover and enjoy it for yourself!
